Euthanasia —

How will it impact on you?

Invitation — Tuesday 30 July 1996

All general practitioners, nurses and allied health professionals are invited to attend this important interactive satellite program.

Discussion and argument on the ethics or desirability of euthanasia have been overtaken by its legislation in the Northern Territory. This legislation, the first to be passed by any government in the world, will influence the practice of medicine in every State of Australia.

This program will provide an overview of the Euthanasia debate, investigate and report on current overseas experience, analyse the impact of the Northern Territory legislation, and specifically address the legal and practical impact on the whole health care community.

This live program will be chaired by Prof. Malcolm Fisher and will report on the Dutch, British and Australian experience. Other panellists include Prof. David Kissane, Dr. Richard Lim, Assoc. Prof. Megan-Jane Johnstone and Mr. Tony Burke,
